COMMUNICATIONS:

REPORTS:

Mr. Siferd reported 24 properties are being addressed for zoning violations; mostly junk items and flat tires. Letters are being sent out to property owners for the violations. Citizen of the Year ceremony will be held on May 5th at West Enon Church of God on Snider Rd at 2 p.m. The water tower project should be completed by the end of the week. Greenon Local School construction is progressing slowly; sewer line should take a couple more days to complete. The water tap phase 1 should take place tomorrow. The credit-card policy required by the auditor of state should be completed and brought to council for a vote next meeting. Administrator Siferd will be working on a beautification grant for the village, paperwork is due on June 15th. The grant is a 75percent reimbursement. Mr. Siferd will be closing on a property in Hunters Glen very soon. He appreciates the support of everyone and is looking forward to serving the village of Enon for a long time.

Chief Wilcox Reports:

Chief Wilcox reported the new cruiser will be assembled May 13th with delivery approx... June 1.

COMMITTEE REPORTS:

Councilman Hanna thanked Whitacre and Fogle for the street review.
