Enon Ohio Police Department (rev 03/25)

The Village of Enon is located in the southwest portion of Clark County, Ohio.

The Enon Police Department is responsible for providing 24 hour police protection to 2,415 village residents who reside in the 1/28 square mile area of Enon. Enon is primarily a residential community with a business community lining Main Street and Xenia Avenue. Enon has been described by some as one of the friendliest places; this, coupled with easy access to I-675 and I-70, creates an ideal location to live and raise a family.

Currently there are two public schools located within the village; Greenon Primary and Greenon K-12, both of which are part of the Greenon Local School District, which is rated as "Excellent with Distinction."

The Enon Police Department is currently authorized (4) Full-Time Police Officer positions; which includes a Chief of Police and Lieutenant. The Enon Police Department is also authorized (12) part-time officers, and currently there are vacant positions. The current pay range for part-time officers starts at $25 - $30 per hour based on experience and qualifications. The mandated probationary employment period is six (6) months which begins the date of appointment as a police officer.

Enon Police responds to an annual average of 1,350 calls for service which includes a wide variety of service and crime related calls and investigates all types of misdemeanor and felony crimes. Training is emphasized at The Enon Police Department which in the past has included instructors from The Ohio State Highway Patrol, Ohio Peace Officers Training Academy, and other regional/special event trainers.

Enon Police strongly believe in community policing and provide such proactive activities as "Shop With A Cop," as well as National Night Out in August. Enon National Night Out has been termed Clark County's best National Night Out.

Persons applying for an Enon Police Officer position should be at least 21 years of age, have a high school diploma or GED, be a US citizen, possess a valid Ohio Driver license, and have successfully completed The Basic Ohio Peace Officer Training Academy. Candidates must also have the ability to perform all the duties of a police officer including but not limited to; preventive patrol, enforcement of traffic and criminal laws, responding to citizen calls, completing paperwork and reports, etc. Work schedules include rotating shifts including evenings and holidays. As part of qualification process, applicants will be required to pass an interview board, extensive background check, polygraph examination, psychological testing, and a medical examination including a drug test. Field training lasts approximately 160 hours.

Enon is a great place to begin or continue your police career. Throughout the years, officers who started their police careers at Enon have gone on to work at other local, state and federal law enforcement agencies. Additional some former Enon officers have excelled and risen to become Sergeants, Lieutenants, Captains or Chiefs of Police within their individual agencies.

The police administration of the Enon Police Department encourages Officers to be proactive, forward thinking, community minded and they strongly believe in working with and mentoring new officers, encouraging them to move from "being just an ordinary copper to becoming an excellent officer."
