Report on meeting of November 15, 2022 The special meeting with Township was very productive. Suggestions from the public; Greenon baseball coach, Michael Beckman, inquired about having more baseball fields. He asked to have plans modified to include two small baseball fields. May need to look at changing parking, Dog Park and moving concession stands. Mr. Whitacre suggested setting up a time frame with the Township for future meetings on project.

Mayor Tim Howard

Office will be closed on Friday after Thanksgiving.

Will be attending Commission Meeting tomorrow at 10 am in Springfield for solar farm discussions.

Medical insurance renewal was a 7.9% increase from last year. Same coverage but emergency co-pay goes up to $50.00. We will stay with this plan. Met with Elijah, Eagle Scout at park, hoping to have work done by Sunday or at least have poles in the ground and finish painting.

Chief Holler

Shop with a cop, will take $2000 out of fund to buy gifts on December 10 at Walmart. Need council approval to appropriate funds. Maybe need a separate fund

COMMITTEE REPORTS

Public Service Meeting,

Public Service meeting was held on November 21, 2022, to discuss Employee Handbook review. Few things were changed: Employees get paid a minimum of two hours on non-exempt weekend work, must have a 3 minute response time and must carry phone at all times. Eligibility for vacation leave was moved to 200 hours from 600 hours and being able to cash in 50% at end of year.
